Saint Edward High School vs. Fairview	12/6/2025	Prepared by: Coach Donelon

Fairview enters our contest with an overall record of 0–1. On the offensive end of the court, Fairview will look to score in transition and wants to push the ball at every opportunity. They can be pressured into taking some bad shots, and they rely heavily on #2 and #0 to carry the offensive load.

Defensively, Fairview will primarily play man-to-man, but they struggle to get back in transition and are poor with their weak-side rotations. This creates opportunities for us to attack early, move the ball, and generate high-quality looks.

For us, this game comes down to discipline and execution. We need to do the little things that make St. Edward High School Basketball special—communication, toughness, unselfishness, and relentless effort on both ends of the floor.

STARTERS

RIGHTY			SENIOR	26 PPG	SCORING GUARD
#2 Will Allen	6'1			2 of 2 FT

Will must be viewed as a SCORING guard, and everything in his game flows from that mentality. He has deep range from the outside and is capable of stretching the defense well beyond the three-point line. As the team's primary point guard, he is a solid ball handler who plays with confidence and is comfortable initiating the offense. His shot features a quick release, allowing him to get attempts off with minimal separation.

When attacking the rim, Will clearly prefers to drive right, where he is more controlled and efficient. He struggles going left, and when forced in that direction he typically looks to pull up for a mid-range jumper or rely on a floater rather than finishing all the way at the rim. He can over-dribble at times, but he does use his handle effectively—leaning on crossovers, changes of speed and direction, and step-backs to create space and generate scoring opportunities.

FACE GUARD - WHEN HE HAS BALL FORCE HIM LEFT - CONTEST ON ALL SHOTS - PRESSURE EARLY

RIGHTY			SENIOR	7 PPG	ENERGY - OFF. GLASS
#1 Savijan Harris	6'1			NO FT ATT

Savijan is a reliable catch-and-shoot threat from the outside, showing confidence shooting off the catch in rhythm. He moves well without the ball, consistently cutting to the rim and hunting offensive rebounds, where he is highly active—recording 4 offensive rebounds against Amherst Steele. Around the basket, he will use a floater to finish and is effective slipping behind the defense for put-backs.

When attacking off the dribble, Savijan prefers to drive right and often turns back to the middle for a turnaround jump shot. He will also use a euro step to navigate help defenders and finish through traffic. Savijan brings consistent energy to Fairview, impacting the game with his activity, movement, and effort on both ends of the floor.

DO NOT ALLOW HIM TO CUT IN FRONT OF FACE - KEEP OFF OFFENSIVE GLASS

RIGHTY			SENIOR	19 PPG	SCORING WING
#0 Burke Lowry	6'4			5 OF 7 FT

Burke is a wing player with the ability to score at all three levels. He consistently looks to drive RIGHT, relying on straight-line attacks to the rim, and he does not prefer going left. When finishing, he will use a floater and often looks to avoid contact at the basket. From the perimeter, Burke does not need much space to get his shot off and is effective as a catch-and-shoot option. He is a solid ball handler and stays active on the glass.

Against Amherst Steele, Burke was 0-of-5 from the 3-point line and recorded 9 rebounds, including one offensive rebound.

BE PHYSICAL WITH HIM - NO PAINT TOUCHES/STRAIGHT LINE DRIVES - FORCE HIM LEFT WHEN HE HAS THE BALL - CONTEST SHOTS - KEEP OFF GLASS

RIGHTY			SENIOR	3 PPG	DRIVER
#3 Malik Walker	6'3			3 OF 4 FT

Malik should be categorized as a driver based on his game film. He consistently prefers to drive left, showing comfort and aggression getting downhill from that side of the floor. In transition, Malik looks to push the pace and attack early before the defense is set. He is active pursuing the glass and seeks opportunities to draw contact, frequently trying to get himself to the foul line. Malik has not shown a willingness to shoot from the outside, reinforcing that his primary offensive identity is as a straight-line, attacking driver.

KEEP HIM IN FRONT OF YOU - NO PAINT TOUCHES - LOCATE EARLY IN TRANSITION

RIGHTY			SOPH	2 PPG	STRETCH BIG
#15 Carter Reagan	6'4			NO ATT

Carter is a catch-and-shoot threat from the outside, though he went 0-for-4 from three against Amherst Steele. He moves well without the ball, cutting hard to the rim and staying active as an off-ball scorer. On the defensive glass, he competes consistently and finished with 5 total rebounds, including 1 offensive rebound in the Amherst Steele matchup. However, he is prone to bringing the ball down after securing rebounds, which can allow smaller defenders to swipe at it.

Offensively, Carter will look to drive middle and get to a fadeaway jumper when attacking. On the right block, he wants to attack baseline, while on the left block, he prefers to attack middle to create separation and get into his shot.

CONTEST ALL SHOTS - MATCH HIS ENERGY - KEEP OFF GLASS

BENCH

RIGHTY SOPH 4 PPG BACKUP PG

#22 Carter Holliday 5'9 NO ATT

Carter will look to catch and shoot from the outside, especially when he is left with space on the perimeter. When attacking off the bounce, he prefers to avoid contact on his drives and relies on a pull-up jump shot off the dribble when defenders cut off his lane. He has decent ball-handling skills and is capable of driving left or right, but he clearly favors finishing with his right hand when he gets to the rim. LOCATE HIM IN TRANSITION - CONTEST HIS SHOTS - NO PAINT TOUCHES

LEFTY JUNIOR 2 PPG SHOOTER

#4 Cal Reis 6'1 NO ATT

Cal is a bench wing player who provides limited but situational minutes as a role player. He is a left-handed shooter with a quick release, capable of knocking down shots when given space. Cal moves well without the ball, cutting into open areas and presenting himself as a catch-and-shoot option. However, his production has been limited due to reduced time on the floor, and he can be pressured into turnovers when defenders apply ball pressure or crowd his space. RUN HIM OFF OF THE LINE - CONTEST ALL SHOTS

RIGHTY JUNIOR 2 PPG ROLE PLAYER

#24 Kyle Farkas 6'1 NO ATT

Kyle is a catch-and-shoot threat from the outside who looks to space the floor and capitalize on spot-up opportunities. He moves well without the ball, consistently cutting to the rim and finding gaps in the defense. He has decent handles that allow him to stay composed under pressure and make simple plays when needed. Overall, Kyle is a reliable role player who contributes within the flow of the offense and plays to his strengths. CONTEST ALL SHOTS - NO FACE CUTS
